DTIC'S ADMINISTRATOR

MR. R. PAUL RYAN
ADMINISTRATOR
DEFENSE TECHNICAL INFORMATION CENTER

Mr. R. Paul Ryan, a member of the Senior Executive Service, is the Administrator of the Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC), a Department of Defense (DoD) Field Activity. DTIC is the central source within DoD for acquiring, storing, retrieving and disseminating scientific and technical information to support DoD research, development, engineering and studies programs. The Center also provides information tools and systems to support Pentagon executives and managers. DTIC hosts, develops and maintains more than 100 of DoD's major Web sites.

Mr. Ryan transformed DTIC from a paper-based workflow to an electronic environment and led the transition of DTIC from a subordinate organizational structure to an established DoD Field Activity aligned with the Director, Defense Research and Engineering, in the office of Under Secretary of Defense, Acquisition, Technology and Logistics.

Previously at DTIC, Mr. Ryan was the Deputy Administrator responsible for the daily operations, budget, and personnel for the Center where he developed and implemented strategic business plans and processes. Prior to his appointment as Deputy Administrator, he was Director, Office of User Services and Marketing; Project Officer in the Office of Information Science and Technology; and the Deputy Program Manager for the DoD Gateway Information System. He held positions with the Ballistic Research Laboratory, Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD (1975-1984) and the U.S. Army at Picatinny Arsenal, Dover, NJ (1972-1975).

A native of Philadelphia, Mr. Ryan earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics from Villanova University and a Master of Science degree in Information Science from Drexel University. He is a former two-term chair of the NATO Research & Technology Organization/Information Management Committee and serves on the Federal Library and Information Centers Committee (FLICC) Executive Board. He was President and member of the Board of Directors of the National Federation of Advanced Information Services (NFAIS) and served as chair of CENDI, the federal Scientific and Technical Information (STI) managers group. Mr. Ryan served two consecutive five-year terms on the Board of Trustees for the Harford County (MD) Public Library System, and held positions as Board Chair and Treasurer.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS
MONDAY, MARCH 22, 2010
9:15 - 10:15 AM IN THE GRAND BALLROOM

MR. ALAN R. SHAFFER
PRINCIPAL DEPUTY DIRECTOR
DEFENSE RESEARCH AND ENGINEERING

Mr. Shaffer serves as the Principal Deputy Director, Defense Research and Engineering. In this position, Mr. Shaffer is responsible for formulating, planning, and reviewing the DoD Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation (RDT&E) programs, plans, strategy, priorities, and execution of the DoD RDT&E budget. Specifically, this position reviews the maturity of technology as part of the acquisition cycle, as well as develops options to reduce the overall technology development risk to DoD programs.

Prior to entering the federal government, Mr. Shaffer served a 24-year United States Air Force career with assignments in weather, intelligence, science and technology management, acquisition oversight, and programming. His career included deployment to Honduras in support of Joint Task Force Bravo in the mid-1980s and direct support of the United States Army 3rd Armored Division at Hanau, Germany. During Operation DESERT STORM, he was responsible for deployment of the 500-person theater weather force. Other assignments included Wing Weather Officer supporting the 320th Bombardment Wing (Heavy) at Mather AFB, CA; Intelligence Officer at Foreign Technology Division, Wright Patterson AFB, OH; Deputy Director of Weather for Air Combat Command, Langley AFB, VA, numerous staff assignments in the Air Staff and Office of the Secretary of Defense, in the Pentagon; and finally, the Air Force Weather Agency, Offutt AFB, NE.

Upon retirement from the United States Air Force in 2000, Mr. Shaffer was appointed to the Senior Executive Service as the Director, Multi-disciplinary Systems, Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Science and Technology. In 2001, he assumed the position as Director, Plans and Programs, Defense Research and Engineering. Mr. Shaffer continues to serve as the Director while serving as the Principal Deputy. As the Director for Plans and Programs, Mr. Shaffer is responsible for the oversight of the Department of Defense science and technology portfolio totaling over $10.5 billion. Mr. Shaffer has served as the Executive Director for several senior Task Forces. These included the Technical Joint Cross Service Group during the Base Realignment and Closure activity; DoD Energy Security Task Force in 2007 and most recently the Executive Director of the Mine Resistant Ambush Protection Task Force. In addition he serves as the tri-chair to the Department of Defense Modeling and Simulation Steering Committee.

Mr. Shaffer earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics from the University of Vermont in 1976. He earned a second Bachelor of Science in Meteorology from the University of Utah, a Master of Science in Meteorology from the Naval Postgraduate School, and a Master of Science in National Resource Strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. He has been awarded the Distinguished Executive Presidential Rank Award in 2007 and the Meritorious Executive Presidential Rank Award in 2004.

TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 2010
8:45 - 9:45 AM IN THE GRAND BALLROOM

MR. RONALD T. KELLY

DEPUTY DIRECTOR, ENTERPRISE SERVICES
DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, CHIEF INFORMATION OFFICER (CIO)

Mr. Ron Kelly is currently the Deputy Director for Enterprise Services and Integration in the Office of the Department of Defense CIO. He is a retired Air Force navigator who spent most of his career in special operations with staff assignments in support of national space systems and Air Force budget programming at the Air Staff. He spent eight years as a contractor supporting the Office of the Secretary of Defense in developing multinational interoperability and wireless policy. In 2006 he returned to government service and has been working in the emerging DoD service-oriented enterprise policy arena and serves as the lead for DoD records management policy. He has been a user of DTIC services since he was an aero engineering student at the Air Force Academy in the last Century!

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 2010
11:30 - 1:00 PM IN THE GRAND BALLROOM

MR.

JJ SUTHERLAND
PENTAGON REPORTER &
AWARD-WINNING
JOURNALIST FROM NATIONAL PUBLIC
RADIO (NPR)

Mr. JJ Sutherland covers the Pentagon for National Public Radio (NPR). Since 2004 he has regularly spent time in Iraq as part of NPR's award-winning team of reporters and producers who have dedicated themselves to covering the conflict. He won many awards for other coverage, which mean a lot to many journalists, but perhaps not so much to anyone else.

He has also reported from Afghanistan and the Israeli Lebanon war in 2006. In between overseas assignments, Sutherland was senior producer at large for NPR, working at just about every position in the building, from blogger to editor to producer to management. Before covering conflicts, he was the founding executive producer of both NPR's midday newsmagazine Day to Day and The Tavis Smiley Show. As assistant managing editor, he opened NPR West in California. Prior to coming to work at NPR he was the producer of WNYC's On The Media in New York, and also worked for WBUR in Boston. He grew up in Denver and Boston, occasionally attended college, and has an only slightly disturbing affinity for bad science fiction.

DTIC USER COUNCIL

The User Council serves as a liaison between DTIC and its user community, operating independently to provide feedback and advice to DTIC on the community's concerns. The User Council was formed to reflect and articulate the interests of the DTIC user community.

The Council meets at least once per year during the annual DTIC Conference. During this meeting, the Council typically presents issues or ideas which have been suggested by the user community. Discussion between DTIC senior management and the Council follows. Topics are further defined and analyzed for practicality and development potential.

User Council elections are also held annually, and new members are announced at the annual DTIC Conference. Council members, who serve for two years, represent the Army, Navy/Marine Corps, Air Force, other DoD and Federal agencies, and DoD contractors.

User Council members are accessible to the membership, which is comprised of DTIC registered users. They interact with the DTIC liaison to promote communication between DTIC and its users. Throughout their tenure, Council members encourage and facilitate any DTIC operations, plans or cooperative efforts that benefit the membership; expedite the flow of information between the membership and DTIC; and make recommendations concerning DTIC products and services. DTIC keeps the Council abreast of major developments and frequently involves Council members to serve as beta testers for new products.

CELEBRATING 65 YEARS OF PROVIDING ACCESS TO DEFENSE INFORMATION

Speaker: Mr. R. Paul Ryan, Administrator, DTIC

The DTIC Administrator welcomes all attendees to a special celebratory edition of our annual DTIC conference. As he officially opens the event, he will journey through time to explain important developments for DTIC users. Who could have dreamed of the technologically advanced DTIC of today when those first recovered paper items surfaced post World War II? What will the next 65 years bring? Start your conference experience with this informative session and meet a leader who believes in "Mission first, people always."

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Learn about the DTIC legacy and the way forward.
- Gain knowledge about beneficial online services to further your mission.
- Find out how to participate in DTIC's continuing development.

9:15-10:15 KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Grand Ballroom

SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY: THE NEED FOR INNOVATION, SPEED & DELIVERY

Speaker: Mr. Alan R. Shaffer, Principal Deputy Director, Defense Research and Engineering (DDR&E)

This presentation is available on DoDTechipedia.

Mr. Shaffer will share his perspective on carrying out the Imperatives outlined for DDR&E. In his role of turning theory into solutions, he will discuss the latest efforts to provide the best for our warfighters' needs. As DTIC's promoter on the road to the agency's enhanced services, he will share the latest on innovation, speed and agility in the Department and illuminate DTIC's potential and service.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Hear about 2010 and beyond for RDT&E.
- Learn to leverage DTIC resources to support our warfighters.

10:15-10:45 BREAK/NETWORKING/EXHIBITS

Plaza Foyer

10:45-11:45 PLENARY SESSION

Grand Ballroom

THE NEW DoD SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING AND MATHEMATICS (STEM) STRATEGIC PLAN FOR OUR NATION'S FUTURE

Speaker: Dr. Laura Adolfie, STEM Development Office of the Director, Defense Research and Engineering (DDR&E)

Moderator: Ms. Helen Q. Sherman, Director, User Services, DTIC

The United States faces a critical shortage of scientists and engineers. Our speaker will recap efforts being planned or performed in the Department to support needs and provide opportunities. Attracting the best and brightest to these professions is essential to meet and exceed our national defense priorities and support our warfighters.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Become familiar with DoD activities in support of STEM.
- Learn what you and your organization can contribute.
- Collaborate throughout the department.

MONDAY, MARCH 22, 2010

11:45-1:00 NETWORKING LUNCH WITH THE EXHIBITORS
Grand Ballroom

1:00-2:15 PLENARY SESSION
Grand Ballroom DEVELOPMENTS IN INFORMATION SECURITY MANAGEMENT: EXECUTIVE ORDER 13526 "CLASSIFIED NATIONAL SECURITY INFORMATION," PLANS FOR NATIONAL DECLASSIFICATION CENTER, AND STATUS OF CONTROLLED UNCLASSIFIED INFORMATION (CUI)

Speakers: Mr. William A. Cira, Associate Director, Classification Management, Information Security Oversight Office

Ms. Carroll Lee, Office of the Under Secretary of Defense Intelligence

Ms. Deborah Ross, DoD Information Security Policy, Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense, (HUMINT, Counterintelligence and Security) Security Directorate

Mr. Edmund Kaufhold, DoD Information Security Policy, Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense, (HUMINT, Counterintelligence and Security) Security Directorate

Moderator: Mr. Bob Van Veghel, STINFO Instructor, Current Awareness Team, DTIC

How has the Executive Order changed the way we do business? What's ahead for marking scientific and technical documents and information? Our speakers will supply the latest information from the Department and other stakeholders on increasing transparency in government through these initiatives.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Formulate activities and participation for your agency in coordination with these efforts.
- Consider future protections and access needs inside the new CUI framework.

2:15-3:00 PLENARY SESSION
Grand Ballroom GUIDELINES TO THE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION IN THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY: BALANCING ACCESS AND SECURITY

Speaker: Mr. Douglas Fontenot, Security Specialist, International Security Programs, Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Technology Security Policy & National Disclosure Policy

Moderator: Ms. Bonnie Klein, Policy Analyst, DTIC

Scientific and technical documents and information access needs produce a constant tension. This session is an overview of U.S. Foreign Disclosure policies that govern the release of classified, controlled unclassified, and export-controlled information to foreign nationals within the U.S. and abroad. What are the considerations of potential value vs. potential risk of sharing information for the conduct of joint-nation military operations, foreign military sales, international cooperative programs (i.e., TTCP & NATO), technology transfer, and DoD acquisitions and procurements in the global marketplace?

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Refresh your knowledge of crucial factors affecting protection and release of controlled information to non-U.S. citizens.
- Receive expert guidance.
- Gain global insight and perspective.

MONDAY, MARCH 22, 2010

3:00-3:30 BREAK/NETWORKING/EXHIBITS
Plaza Foyer

3:30-4:30 PLENARY SESSION

DoD COLLABORATIVE TOOLS WITH INNOVATIVE WEB 2.0 FEATURES: DoDTechipedia, DefenseSolutions AND ARISTOTLE

Speakers: Mr. Christopher Thomas, Director, Information Systems Support and Chief Technology Officer (CTO), DTIC

Mr. David Edwards, Open Business Cell, Rapid Fielding, DDR&E

Mr. Joel Sercel, Program Manager, Air Force Research Laboratory (AFRL)

Moderator: Ms. Charlene Madaffer-Meehan, Team Lead, Marketing, DTIC

What's new with our Defense S&T wiki: DoDTechipedia? Is there any news about DefenseSolutions? Attend this session and hear about all the latest enhancements, participation, and projections for the future. Hear about the latest technology acquisition tool: DefenseSolutions, with its initiatives and successes since our last event. Do you know Aristotle? It's the latest tool to communicate and collaborate within the Department.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Provide an overview of DTIC's newest Web 2.0 tools to support S&T collaboration.
- Understand how these capabilities can enhance your efforts.
- Become aware of tutorials, webinars, and other training opportunities.

8:30-10:00 DTIC INFORMATION COLLECTION UPDATE

Washington
2nd Floor

Speakers: Mr. Jack Rike, Technical Reports Integration Team Leader, DTIC
Ms. Shari Pitts, Technical Reports Development Team, TR Efforts and Initiatives, DTIC
Ms. Julia Foscue, Special Collections Team, Research Summaries, DTIC
Mr. Dave Hyman, Special Collections Team, Independent Research and Development (IR&D) & Defense Technology Transfer (T2) Program Manager, DTIC
Moderator: Mr. Jesse W. "Willis" Smith, Information Collection Division, DTIC

In keeping with this year's theme, the Information Collection Division will provide a history of information collection and submission throughout the years. Mr. Rike will discuss the progression of document submission to the Technical Reports (TR) database, specifically the Security Classification Guides Index, the different types of files/formats DTIC accepts, and the electronic submissions process. Ms. Pitts will discuss TR outreach efforts in 2009, current efforts, and information on TR submission resources. Ms. Foscue will present the historical evolution of how Research Summaries (RS) have supported DoD's R&D efforts for 45 years. Mr. Hyman will provide both the historical perspective of the Independent Research and Development (IR&D) collection and an update on new initiatives for the DoD IR&D Program and database.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Become aware of the latest information from DTIC's major database program managers.
- Hear updates on submitting information.

8:30-10:00 DTIC: A LEADER IN WEB HOSTING SERVICES FOR DoD

10:15-11:30 DTIC ONLINE ACCESS CONTROLLED & DoDTechipedia: What Users Want

*Madison
2nd Floor*

Speaker: Dr. Bill Kules, Assistant Professor, School of Library and Information Science, The Catholic University of America

Mr. Jack Jones, Project Officer, Information Science & Technology, DTIC

Ms. LaDona Kirkland, Project Officer, Information Science & Technology, DTIC

Moderator: Ms. Carol Jacobson, Deputy Director, Information Science and Technology, DTIC

DTIC's Information Science and Technology Directorate is always looking for ways to enhance DTIC's products and services. This session covers their current efforts to address customer needs relating to DTIC Online Access Controlled and DoDTechipedia. Speakers will discuss a variety of techniques including usability studies and expert reviews; personas and scenarios; and surveys that are currently being used to identify customer needs. Let your voice be heard by attending this session and making your feelings known!

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Learn about the choices, criteria, and process of development within DTIC.
- Provide input to the Project Management and performers of this project.

11:30-1:00 LUNCHEON

Grand Ballroom

Speaker: Mr. JJ Sutherland, Pentagon Reporter and Award – Winning Journalist from National Public Radio (NPR)

1:00-2:15 OVERVIEW OF DTIC'S INFORMATION ANALYSIS CENTERS (IACs)

*Washington
2nd Floor*

Speaker: Mr. Terry Heston, IAC Program Manager, DTIC

Moderator: Mr. Howard Brande, Marketing Analyst, DTIC

Have you used a DTIC IAC? These centers of excellence, supply subject matter expertise and focused information. They serve as a bridge between government, industry and academia and are available to all DoD and federal R&D/S&T performers as well as the acquisition community. DTIC currently manages 10 operations, each with a clearly defined, specialized field or subject area. Hear more about their capabilities, accomplishments, and reimbursable services in this overview including their function, specialties, how to contact an individual IAC, plus how to access the documents and technical reports they produce.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Become familiar with these specialized sources of information and services.
- Learn how you can maximize your usage of these valuable resources.
- Get details of available no-cost resources

1:00-2:15 ARNOLD ENGINEERING DEVELOPMENT CENTER (AEDC): DTIC'S COUNTERPART FROM WORLD WAR II AND TODAY'S PROVIDER OF TEST AND EVALUATION INFORMATION

*Jefferson
2nd Floor*

Speaker: Ms. Theresa J. (Jeannie) Bowden, Facility Security Officer, AEDC, Arnold AFB, TN
Moderator: Ms. Wendy Hill, S&T Outreach Liaison, DTIC

AEDC is also celebrating 65 years of service to DoD. As Ms. Bowden highlights the history plus describes AEDC's vital role today, you will see parallels to DTIC. This session highlights a unique test and evaluation (T&E) facility and a valuable player in our Scientific and Technical environment. T&E is a critical phase of the development cycle, continuing the work performed at applicable R&D centers.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Learn more about this unique T&E resource.
- Become aware of the history and foresight of our military leaders in fostering unique capabilities.

1:00-2:15 WHAT'S AHEAD FOR DTIC SEARCHING?

*Salon A
1st Floor*

Speakers: Ms. Phyllis Levine, TRAIL Program Manager, DTIC
Mr. Andrew Pedrick, Instructor, Current Awareness Team, DTIC

Capable searching and complete accurate results rely on the underlying technology as well as the skill of the retriever. Our two speakers will describe coming enhancements to DTIC search products including the DTIC Online Suite and MultiSearch, the DTIC federated product. Your input and feedback is wanted and needed; so if you are a searcher, do not miss this opportunity to participate in the process.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Increase awareness of product capabilities and potential.
- Hear more detail on plans and possibilities to improve the process as well as your output.
- Query our experts on these systems and improve your process.

1:00-2:15 STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION: WINNERS

*Madison
2nd Floor*

Speaker: Ms. Carol Jacobson, Deputy Director, Information Science and Technology Directorate, DTIC

Award Winners: Ms. Shannon Lantzy, University of Maryland iSchool
Mr. Jeremy Hutchins, Pratt Institute
Ms. Ariane Ben Eli, Pratt Institute
Ms. Hanna Bachrach, Pratt Institute

DTIC, in support of the DoD Scientific and Technical Information Program (STIP), held a Student Paper Competition. Graduate students in Library and Information Science were invited to submit papers. The purpose of the competition was to promote the generation of new ideas and the conduct of new research in areas of strategic interest to DTIC and to promote understanding of DTIC's mission and program among information professionals. The winning papers will be presented at this session. Come and provide support and encouragement to these new information professionals!

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Witness the information providers & purveyors of the future.
- Listen to these representatives of library and information schools and their vision.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 2010

2:15-2:30 AFTERNOON BREAK

Plaza Foyer

2:30-3:30 **LEARN HOW TO CREATE, EDIT, & UPLOAD FILES ON DoDTECHIPEDIA & ARISTOTLE**

*Washington
2nd Floor*

Speakers: Ms. Jessica Jones, Senior Marketing Strategist, DTIC

Mr. Bruce Gilbert, Program Analyst, DTIC

DTIC provides the DoD community with two premiere social networking tools, DoDTechipedia and Aristotle. DoDTechipedia, launched in October 2008, is the online science and technology wiki for the defense community. Aristotle, the latest development in 2010, provides situational awareness across the DoD S&T community. This workshop focuses on the functionality, highlighting the necessary steps to get started and help you navigate each site with ease and confidence.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Learn to share and retrieve mission critical information with comfort through use of these valuable resources.
- Learn how to navigate these sites and collaborate using the many capabilities.
- Identify new editing & social networking tools available to help better communicate with others in the DoD community.

2:30-3:30 **OVERVIEW OF STIP POLICY FOR STAKEHOLDERS**

*Jefferson
2nd Floor*

Speakers: Ms. Bonnie Klein, Policy Analyst, DTIC

The Deputy Secretary of Defense has set a deadline of January 2012 for the review and certification or revision of all DoD policy issuances. DTIC is responsible for the Scientific and Technical Information Program (STIP) guidance found in DoDD 3200.12, DoDD 5230.24; DoDD 5230.25; DoDD 5230.27; DoDI 3200.14 and DoDM 3200.12. Stakeholders are invited to participate in an open forum to identify issues and to make recommendations for changes in STIP instructions. Bonnie Klein, the DTIC Policy Analyst responsible for coordinating STIP policy updates, will moderate the discussion.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Learn about the DoD issuances process.
- Learn about proposed changes to DoD STIP guidance.
- Share your STIP issues.

2:30-3:30 **POWER SEARCHING PUBLIC RESOURCES ON DTIC ONLINE**

*Salon A
1st Floor*

Speaker: Ms. Candy Parker, Lead Instructor, Current Awareness Team, DTIC

DTIC Online has been in existence since July 2008 and provides consolidated access to a cornucopia of information. Learn how to use it more efficiently to meet your information needs. Included in this session are tips for site navigation, an overview of publicly available information resources, plus search capabilities and functionality for information retrieval and output. Learn about this version, and have a head start on using DTIC's companion product on an access controlled site.

Learning/Training Objectives:

- Locate scientific & technical information on public DoD Web sites.
- Understand search tools and available information resources.
- Learn how to get help locating the information you need.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 2010

2:30-3:30 ESSENTIAL BUDGET RESOURCES FOR DoD

*Madison

2009 COMBATANT COMMANDERS WORKSHOP

NOVEMBER 3-4, TAMPA, FL

DTIC held COCOM workshops in 2007 and 2009 designed to support this significant group of warfighters. This event complements the annual DTIC Conference in Alexandria.

Many of you did not attend this event. You are welcome to access the information-rich presentations via DoDTechipedia (agenda linked to slides) or watch them via Defense Connect Online (DCO).

Sessions include DTIC Online, DoDTechipedia and the Information Analysis Centers (IACs).

Using DoDTechipedia:

<https://www.dodtechipedia.mil> and on DoDTechipedia on the SIPRNet.

Enter "cocom workshop" in the wiki's search box to locate the 2009 COCOM Workshop agenda on the COCOM S&T site. If you are a registered DTIC user, use your CAC to login or your login ID/Password.

Using DCO:

1. Register at <https://www.dco.dod.mil>
2. Click on the green Register button
3. Complete the form
4. Once registered, send an email to DTICCoComWorkshop@dtic.mil to report your registration
5. We will email you confirming your invitation to view the sessions
6. Login and choose "My Meetings" and select "CoCom Workshop - Nov 3&4, 2009"

If you have any problems with DCO registration, contact your local technical support and/or the DCO support listed on the DCO site.
